Greater Dallas Chapter

Ethics Class

Instructor: Marc Banner, MPM®

This three-hour course is required by NARPM for all RMP designees. Redesigned in 2002, the ethics course helps to remind you what is and is not ethical from a professional standard point of view. The code of ethics and the standards of professionalism are reviewed in depth to remind NARPM members that they subscribe to the highest ethical and professional standards by being members of NARPM. Case studies relating to every day property management issues and a final exam round out the course.
